6. FIGHTS DURATION

Fights duration SENIOR +18 y.o. will be as follows.

- Qualifying matches:

2'00" + 2'00" – Weight – 2'00" (Mandatory final decision ENCHOSEN)

- Semi-final and Final:

3'00" + 2'00" – Weight – 2'00" (Mandatory final decision ENCHOSEN)

Fights duration SENIOR +40 y.o. will be as follows.

- All rounds:

2'00" + 2'00" – Weight – 2'00" (Mandatory final decision ENCHOSEN)

In the event that there is still no final decision by Judges and Referee, the weight of both competitors will be checked, declaring the winner to the lightest of them provided there is a difference of more 10 kg.

In case there is no weight difference to declare a winner, another fight of 2 minutes will take place with mandatory final decision (ENCHOSEN) from the Judges and the Referee.

6.1. CALCULATION OF TIME

The duration of the fight will be calculated since the Referee says HAJIME and the chrono will be stopped only when the Referee says so, when the stop time of the fight is very high.

A red bag will be used to indicate the end of the fight time, sounding a horn or similar at the same time the bag is thrown, ensuring the bag falls in a visible place both for competitors and Referee.

7. FIGHTS DECISION CRITERIA

A competitor will be declared winner before the end of the fight when he/she gets an Ippon, or two Waza-aris, which will constitute an Ippon or if the retirement of the adversary occurs.

7.1. VICTORY BY IPPON

With the exception of the techniques considered as faults, to the competitor that executes any technique in an allowable area of the body and accuse the opponent or cease to continue the fight for the technique cited before for a time of 3 seconds or more it will be considered Ippon.

Achieving two Waza-aris in the same fight, will result an Ippon.

7.2. VICTORY BY WAZA-ARI

With the exception of the techniques considered as faults, to the competitor that executes any technique in an allowable area of the body and accuse the opponent or cease to continue the fight for the technique cited before for a time less than 3 seconds it will be considered Waza-ari.

Also the knocked down competitor will be allowed to continue the championship if the Referee sees he/she is in a position to do so, being able to consult the championship's doctor if necessary, and writing it down in the table list (Normally the competitor who has received a strong blow and lost consciousness, will be 3 months without competing).

7.3. VICTORY BY RESIGNATION OF THE ADVERSARY (KIKEN)

When one of the competitors voluntarily renounces to continue the fight, the other competitor will be grant victory.

In this case, the Referee shall mention the colour of the opponent who has given up followed by the word KIKEN to indicate that he has resigned, subsequently he shall grant victory to the other competitor indicating the colour (aka or shiro) followed by the expression NO KACHI.

7.4. VICTORY BY DECISION (HANTEI-KACHI)

The criteria that has to be followed by the arbitration teams when taking final decisions are the following:

- Damage caused
- Effectiveness in techniques
- Number of techniques used
- Fight tactics and strategy (distance, focus, etc.)
- Fighting spirit and sacrifice during the fight.

The decision will be valid in all cases either Ippon, Waza-ari or final decision when a minimum of three of the five members of the arbitration team make the same decision.

The tatami judge will be responsible for pointing the penalties as well as the Waza-aris to avoid confusion.

The referee will point out the judges before making the final decision, the absences and if there is a winner for penalties, indicating: nothing if there is no difference, Waza-ari if there is a difference.

Once all these factors have been evaluated, it must be differentiated, in order to grant victory to one of the two competitors by decision of the arbitration team, whether or not one of the competitors has scored.

7.4.1. NONE OF THE TWO COMPETITORS HAS SCORED

When none of the competitors finish the fight with Ippon, Waza-ari or the necessary reprimands, a winner will be given by decision.

To grant victory to one of the competitors based on the accumulation of penalties from the opponent, there must be a difference of at least two penalties.

7.4.2. SOME OF THE TWO COMPETITORS HAVE SCORED

When one of the competitors has scored, the following equivalence between warnings, penalties, Waza-aris and IPPONES will be taken into account:

The victory will be granted to the competitor in which the sum of scores and penalties is higher, taking into account that Chui is not a penalty but a warning and, as such, has no value for this purpose.

EXAMPLES

8.1. DISQUALIFICATION (SHIKKAKU)

The following issues may deserve disqualification with the complete and absolute discretion of the championship Referee, however, the disqualified competitor can show his dissatisfaction through his coach to the Tatami Judge who will review it and give the appropriate explanations and in case of doubt will be reviewed by the Supreme Arbitrator of the competition, who after consulting with the Judges and Referee may reinstate the disqualified competitor or confirm and approve the decision made; the Supreme Referee decision of the championship will be final and permanent.

The following situations will constitute disqualification:

- Three faults (Genten-San = Shikkaku)
- Not obey Referee's instructions during the fight.
- Actions considered as violent or incorrect attitudes such as celebrating the victory when the referee gives it to the competitor, in this case he will be disqualified and will not have a trophy.
- Being the competitors facing each other without the desire to compete, both competitors will be disqualified leaving the places they will opt.
- Pretend defeat by one of the competitors.
- The competitors who refuse being part of the kumite after three calls from the Referee. In this case, each call shall be 2'30" apart and must be properly communicated through the sound system of the building where the championship is taking place.

The physical disability that arises during the championship, will allow the competitor to retire after examination and validation of the injury by the doctor. This decision will be final.

If a competitor is expelled in the semi-finals or finals by Shikaku, he will be without a trophy, except if for some reason the Supreme Judge after consultation decides otherwise.

If in the final the injured competitor cannot continue the fight and does not have any Waza-ari he will receive the second trophy, if he had a Waza-ari he would receive the first place, since he would have won.

The competitor who has not won any combat will not have a trophy.
